

Minutes February 13, 1990

Meeting called at 10:00 am at Wellesley College, Wellesley, MA

The meeting was divided into three sessions.

In the morning session, Mr. Forest Bect of CDS Systems of Indianapolis, IN gave a talk and demonstration of a new computerized key control system which he designed. The system is designed to keep track of items in the following manner:

Lock Shop	Key Control People
Key Cuts (Codes)	Keys Issued to People
Cuts into Locks (Code #'s)	People who are carrying Keys
Locks into Doors (Locations)	Keys into Doors (Locations)
Keys into Doors (Locations)	People into Doors (Locations)
Doors into Keys (Locations)	Doors into Keys (Locations)
Lock's History	Key Returns
Code History	Key Audits
Coreing	Reissue of Keys
Combinating	Key History
System Modeling	People vs Key History
Assuring Non-Duplication	System Modeling
	Assuring Non-Duplication

In the afternoon session, Mr. Bill Michael, Commercial Account Executive of Mosler Safe discussed the different ratings or classifications of safes and government containers for cash and records. Of particular note was that after 1998, the GSA will no longer allow locking bars on containers such as file cabinets.

The third session was a regular business meeting. Various reports were given by the officers and a motion was made and seconded that a vote taken to amend By-Law Article XIII, Section 1-1 which reads: "This organization does not and will not support any product or service." to instead read ""This organization does not and will not support any product or service except as sold by, and/or through the ILA". This was done on the suggestion of Mr. Don OShall, Locksmith, Author, Writer for The National Locksmith magazine, and a member of the ILA to allow us some flexibility in the future, and so that there would not be any conflict with the sale of our own items such as pins, patches, mugs, decals, etc. This motion was brought up for discussion at the meeting at the University of New Hampshire. Motion passed unanimously.

The ILA wishes to give a hearty thanks to Mr. Forest Bect, Mr. Bill Michael, and the folks at Wellesley College for a great meeting.

We would also like to thank Mr. Vic Swanson and his students from the North Bennett Street School who are always welcome at our meetings.
